

I have known Sheikh Nasser for over 4 decades. He was one of the most passionate individuals I have ever met. His love for art and culture was unparalleled, and his achievements speak for themselves. His legacy will live through his contributions and the museum will carry his vision for perpetuity.

I extend my condolences to Sheikha Hussa and the family.

Professor Sir Nasser David Khalili