

Dear Sheikha Hussa,

I was so saddened to hear the news about Sheikh Nasser. I never had the pleasure of meeting him (he came once to my ex-museum but I only found out after he had left!). But the deaths! Know who had business with him all sing praises about his kindness, enthusiasm and personal generosity. The world of art, museums and heritage lost one of its pillars.

My deepest sympathies to you and your family.

Kenson Kwok
ACM