

My Dear Hussah,

There are truly no words to express the great sadness I am feeling since learning of the passing of dear Nasser! I shall never forget him! Please know, dear Hussah, that you are in my thoughts at this very difficult time for you and your children and I trust that you will let me know if there is anything I can do to help you through the coming months. Both you and Nasser were there for me when I lost my beloved Maan and that meant so much to me. At this saddest of times for you, I sincerely hope there is something I can do to help you as well.

With my deepest sympathy and much love,
Lyn
