

Dear Sheikha Hussah,

It is only a few weeks ago we were in touch, and I heard only today of the loss your dear dear husband, our Sheikh Nasser. Jacqueline and I were so fond of Sheikh Nasser from the first moment he visited our then home in Castellain Road in London over forty years ago. He was one of the kindest and most courteous gentleman.

He always had an excellent eye, extraordinary scholarship and lovely smile, he made us always feel immediately at ease. We recall with particular fondness to be invited to your home in Liss in Hampshire. I have only recently been reading short accounts of some of the great things he achieved, it was truly a great life. Sheikh Nasser will always be remembered.

Jacqueline joins me in offering you and your family our deepest condolences.

Bless you all and please keep safe during these very difficult and dangerous times.

With very best wishes,

Michael
